

WORKSHOP INSTRUCTOR

PCA is happy to have an excellent instructor for our Young Playwrights Festival competition. Take a look at her background and qualifications below!

Debra White holds a BA in Theatre Arts, an MA in Educational Administration and an Educational Technology Certification from The University of California at Irvine. She taught for 33 years working with elementary through post-secondary populations. During her career as a theatre arts educator she has directed over 200 productions and worked extensively to integrate technology and the arts. Debra has worked as a trainer for The San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, The California Arts Project, and Orange County Dept. of Ed. Debra directs Family Theatre for PCA and has taught two Summer Theatre Workshops. During the 2015-16 Season she directed “Disney’s The Little Mermaid Jr”. In the 16-17 Season, she directed “Disney’s Alice in Wonderland, Jr.” and coming up in April 2018, Debra will be directing “Madagascar – A Musical Adventure Jr.” Debra is currently the Education Committee Chair for Prescott Center for the Arts.
